The tiger (Panthera tigris) is the largest cat species, most recognizable for its pattern of dark vertical stripes on reddish-orange fur with a lighter underside. The species is classified in the genus Panthera with the lion, leopard, jaguar and snow leopard. It is an apex predator, primarily preying on ungulates such as deer and bovids. It is territorial and generally a solitary but social ...

Design and commissioning Development of the Tiger class. The Tiger-class cruisers were developments of the Minotaur-class (later renamed Swiftsure-class) light cruisers, laid down in 1942–3, but production of the Light Fleet Carrier was given priority and the Tiger design was viewed as obsolete by 1944 - the extra weight required by war requirements for radar, electronics and AA armament ...

Tigeren er den af de store katte, der varierer mest i størrelse, endnu mere end løven. De bengalske og sibiriske underarter er de højeste over skulderen og anses derfor som de største levende kattedyr. De er sammen med den uddøde kaspiske tiger blandt de største, der nogensinde har eksisteret. En gennemsnitlig voksen han fra det nordlige Indien eller Sibirien vejer omkring 45,5 kilo ...
